Dear Admiral Turner,

Would you please take time out from your many other pressing matters and duties to sign the enclosed Japanese Occupation note and the Allied Military currency note. Also, sir, would you please be so kind as to send me a signed photo of yourself. I would like to add these items to my American Admirals autograph collection, a serious study of the American Navy and it's Admirals. Also, sir, I would like to tell you that you have my full support for everything you have done and will be doing as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency. You are indeed doing a outstanding job, Admiral, and one that only a true Navy man could be able to do. I truly mean every word of this, sir. I myself feel that a Navy man should be the Director of the F.B.I. and I have written to President Carter and stated so. What do you think of this ideal, Admiral? I would be grateful for a personal reply, sir, and I thank you for signing these currency notes for my collection and for the signed photo of yourself. Best wishes and regards.

Most sincerely,
Randall Sutherland
